Back by popular demand and more fun than ever, Peninsula Seniors invites all members, future members, families, and friends to our signature Olde-Fashioned Ice Cream Social on Sunday, July 23 from 2–4 pm at the Scriba Family Center. We're so excited that our local Handel's, listed as one of the world's top-10 ice creams, will be scooping four flavors into ice cream cups on our plaza this year with indoor and outdoor seating.

Take time to enjoy a Sunday summer outing. Call your family and neighbors and invite them to see what Peninsula Seniors is all about (#SocialClub). We're all here to engage, make friends, laugh, move, learn, and reach out, and summer is just the time to enjoy the peaceful, inviting atmosphere of the Scriba Family Center. Whether you come in for a cup of coffee, play bingo, hear a lecture, exercise, or just say "hi," we welcome you to come join us to make life fun.

At last year's ice cream social we welcomed 150 members and guests to the Scriba Family Center, and we're expecting a crowd on July 23 again this year. So make your reservations early.

A Minute With Margie

As we continue to develop our programming, I am reminded that we always have unfilled volunteer needs. For example:

- We have a beautiful digital kiosk in our lobby that needs to be updated periodically, and
- we could use help with data entry in our business software, QuickBooks Online.

I hope we have your birthday on record, because we have volunteers who will call you to wish you a happy birthday! How sweet is that!

And speaking of sweet, please join us for our next signature event, an Olde Fashioned Ice Cream Social on Sunday, July 23, from 2 to 4 pm, here at the beautiful Scriba Family Center. Be sure to call in your RSVP by Thursday, July 20.

We're here for you, so let us know if you have ideas for new summer activities, events, and classes to make life fun!

With Gratitude,

MUSIC APPRECIATION

Wednesdays, 3–4 pm, SFC or via Zoom

Join us as we survey quintessential California music for the first two weeks this month. We'll hear songs about the state, its cities, and its locales. Many are tributes to the state, some are about local lifestyles, and others are just famous pieces that mention California.

For the last two weeks of the month, we'll explore the 1967 sociological phenomenon called "The Summer of Love," when about 100,000 people, mostly young people sporting hippie fashions of dress and behavior, converged in San Francisco's Haight-Ashbury neighborhood. Their music reflected and probably influenced the anti-establishment movement of the time. We'll study and sample the music of that year.

Join us every Wednesday from 3–4 pm in person at the Peninsula Seniors Scriba Family Center or simultaneously on Zoom.

In-person attendees: Call (310) 377-3003 to RSVP.

Peninsula Seniors Kicks Off Summer Fun at the PVP Chamber Street Fair, June 10-11

Norris Center Drive and adjacent areas in Peninsula Shopping Center and the Promenade on the Peninsula were alive with fun for all as locals kicked off summer at the PVP Chamber's Street Fair and Music Festival!

There were rides for children and youth, games for all who wanted to play, music, entertainment, and lots of food choices. Countless pop-ups "housed" staffers who provided information about local cities, service and interest groups, businesses of every kind, utilities, fire and police, and much more.

Peninsula Seniors directors and volunteers staffed our pop-up in two-hour shifts. Director Greg Sparkman designed a colorful backdrop for our tent that featured photos of our events and members. Display tables showcased our Connections newsletters, crafts made by members, flyers about our Hot Deals program, and more. Two delicious-looking but faux ice cream sundaes, created by Sheila Lawton, promoted our upcoming ice cream social.

Little Bijou, a Yorkie belonging to Peninsula Seniors volunteer Susan Reymond, was a big attraction on Sunday as visitors to our booth petted her and offered small puppy treats, which were quickly and happily consumed. On Saturday, pens and small succulents were offered as takeaways to visitors.

Many visitors to our pop-up entered to win a drawing for a complimentary Peninsula Seniors membership.

Julia Parton, a member of our Board of Directors who helped staff our pop-up at the fair, summed up the benefits of our presence at the event, "The Palos Verdes Street Fair," she said, "is a great way to introduce and remind the community of the fabulous Peninsula Seniors programs and events!"
